The Pacific Islands Club is Guam's only true resort. Situated on 22 acres of ocean front property, PIC features an all-inclusive facilities concept where guests can enjoy over 70 different sports and recreational activities at no additional cost.

PIC is Guam's largest hotel with close to 800 guest rooms featuring deluxe accommodations with panoramic ocean views, which rated "Best on Guam" by Nikkei Trendy Magazine. PIC is home to seven full service restaurants, including the award-winning Bistro and Pacific Fantasies Dinner Show.

A unique feature of PIC is its friendly staff of "Clubmates." Connoisseurs of fun, Clubmates facilitate sports instruction and the many activities designed to deliver a truly memorable tropical vacation. PIC's Waterpark is set amidst tropical gardens and waterfalls, and includes a slide pool, a game pool, a lap pool and a 50,000 square foot windsurfing pool. Other features include a Swim-thru Aquarium, 18-hole Putter Golf Course, In-line Skate, and additional sports and activities galore!

Location:

Guam is the largest island of Micronesia, located at Lat. 13°38"N and Long. 144°44"E. Guam is the closest American territory to Japan with a flight time of approx. 3 hours. PIC-Guam is centrally positioned on Tumon Bay and its 87,000 sq. meter property spreads from the coastal line rolling uphill.

Transportation:

PIC-Guam is a 4-minute drive from the Guam International Airport and 10-minute drive to downtown Hagatna. Buses and trolleys shuttle among shopping spots and hotels every 20 minutes daily.
